Enthusiasts may attend any VPPA educational function. Dues cover the Convention and the Summer Seminar as well as the monthly District meetings.

Members of the Enthusiast category may bring images for critique to the Seminar and District meetings. Enthusiasts must comply with all VPPA rules and restrictions. Entries will be given a score indicative of the competition standards. These images are not eligible for any awards or ribbons.

Fees and fines for use of the library are the same as for professional members.

All of the privileges associated with this category are listed on the back of this application.

Members in this category who are found to be engaging in professional photography as determined by the VPPA Board of Directors will be asked to apply for a regular VPPA membership with all attendant requirements or to terminate immediately their relationship with the Association. There will be no reimbursements of any funds previously paid.
