

OHJACK R

The Yard Equine Center welcomes OHJACK R to our breeding program! Born in 1996, OHJACK R is an impressive 16'1 bay RPSI Stallion. He transmits a strong presence of "Look at Me" from a gorgeous head and a supreme expression. He brings power to his gaits and movements from a willing temperament that he passes along to his offsprings. Purchased from Europe as a 5 year old as a show jumping stallion, OHJACK R with his beautiful form advance all the way to the Jimmy Williams Future classes bringing in many successful wins. Currently as a breeding stallion, he is producing foals of beauty and power for the jumping and dressage ring.

KOJACK (Westphalian), sire of OHJACK R was convincing in all the jumping sections at his performance test, being marked with a 9 three times and an 8.5. In 1997 Kojack won the stallion competition and produced the Netherlands champion fillies & sired Paco & Optimist, licensed KWPN. His offsprings are highly desired and are excelling remarkably well in the jumping in the national and international show jumping ring. KOJACK products currently staring at Grand Prix level are Orchidee (KOJACK x JASPER and Oubertha (KOJACK x CAVALIER).
