For 20 years, award-winning North Carolina artist William Mangum has created unique artwork that is reproduced on Honor Cards to benefit the Greensboro Urban Ministry. Each fall, the proceeds from the sales of these holiday cards support the organization's mission of aiding the city's homeless, hungry, and poor. A number of other North Carolina communities have adopted the Honor Card as well and listing of those organizations is below. You can also view a gallery of past Honor Cards here.

For more information on William Mangum, visit <http://www.williammangum.com>.
