PERSONAL SESSIONS

Before we schedule our session, we'll meet for a consultation, either virtually or in person at my home studio. During this meeting, we'll get to know each other and begin to plan your personalized photo experience.

We'll discuss custom photo ideas, potential locations, and wardrobe tips. Together, we'll build a session that fits you.

You'll also get to preview various high quality photo products available as gifts for family members or to display your photos in your own home.

CUSTOM PACKAGES

After your session, you'll get to preview your images in a password protected gallery and build your photo package by selecting your favorite images!

PROFESSIONAL DESIGNS

After you receive your digital images, you'll have a chance to order professional photo products to display your memories on.

We offer heirloom worthy options, including vivid metal and acrylic prints, custom layflat albums, mini accordion albums, mounted gift prints, and museum quality canvases.

If you're interested in a custom gallery wall, we'll use professional software to design arrangements directly on a photo of your own home!

Product brochures available upon request.

We often use the nursery, master bedroom, and living room as photo areas, but each session is unique and customized to the family's home and needs. Newborn sessions can be lengthy at times, and we plan on frequent breaks for diaper changes and feedings.
